Applicants who choose the Temple Option—a way to apply to Temple without submitting standardized test scores—are still eligible for scholarships and the Honors Program. We recommend that applicants who have scored an 1150 on the SAT (on a 1600-point scale) or a 25 on the ACT submit their scores as a part of their application. To learn more about the Temple Option, visit admissions.temple.edu/templeoption.

*Only academic courses are considered (English, social studies, mathematics, sciences and languages). The highest result of two methods is used to obtain an SAT score on the 1600-point scale; in both methods, the highest submitted SAT scores are used:

- Critical Reading + Math, or
- the average of Critical Reading + Writing added to Math

The deadline to appeal for additional scholarship monies based on new testing information is January 15. The appeal must be in writing.

President's and Provost's Scholars are automatically admitted to the Honors Program. Other incoming freshmen admitted to the Honors Program will also be eligible to receive a one-summer, $4,000 education enhancement stipend.

File your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon after January 1 as possible. You may file the FAFSA at fafsa.gov. Temple University's federal school code is 003371. Temple will begin processing financial aid packages on February 15.
