PACKING LIST: PRE-COLLEGE STUDY ABROAD – ROME

WHAT YOUR ROOM INCLUDES
- Twin bed
- Storage (e.g. dresser, closet, etc.)
- Linens (towels, sheets, blankets, pillow)
- Air conditioner
- Desk
- Shades, curtains, or blinds
- Laundry detergent if you want to wash and re-wear some of your clothes

LUGGAGE GUIDELINES
Your airline ticket includes one (1) checked bag (up to 62 inches in size, 50 lb. weight limit), one (1) carry-on suitcase (22 x 14 x 9 inches), and one (1) personal item (e.g. backpack or tote). Please make sure that you can manage your bag(s) on your own. Wheeled suitcases are recommended! Elevators/escalators are not always available in Italy, and your classmates and chaperones will be unable to help you with your bags! Pack efficiently!

THINGS TO BRING
This list is a general overview of items that typically are used in a residence hall room. This is not an all-inclusive list; if you are unsure about an item, please contact the Pre-College Programs office at precollege@temple.edu.

Personal Care
Please adhere to TSA guidelines regarding liquids (e.g. no liquids larger than 3.4 oz each, fitting in a quart-sized plastic bag) for any carry-on luggage.
There are no size limits for checked bags.
- Contact lens supplies and/or glasses
- Shampoo and conditioner
- Body wash
- Deodorant
- Sunscreen
- Lotion
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Hand sanitizer
- Other toiletries (e.g. makeup, etc.) if desired
- Sunglasses
- First-aid supplies (band-aids, etc.)
- Plastic bag to protect toiletries in suitcase
- Menstrual hygiene items, if applicable
- Medications/prescriptions, if applicable, including inhalers

Clothing
- One outfit in your carry-on luggage, in case there is a delay with your checked bag arriving
- Casual outfits for warm weather *
  At least one modest outfit where your shoulders are covered. Shorts or skirts must be down to the knee. This is for visiting sacred spaces like the Vatican.
- Sweater or jacket
- Rain jacket with hood (or small umbrella)
- Bathing suit and coverup
- Pajamas
- Socks
- Undergarments
- Hat
- Two pairs of comfortable shoes that you can walk in, like:
  - Closed-toe shoes (e.g. sneakers)
  - Sandals (flip flops are NOT recommended, except for the beach trip)
- Packing cubes may help you compress some of your items and fit more in your suitcase

Travel
- YOUR PASSPORT
- Printed copy of your airline ticket
- Books or things to do on the plane
- Neck rest for overnight flight
- Dramamine for motion sickness, if desired
- Compression socks, if desired
- Snacks

Technology
- Headphones
- Cell phone

Please check with your wireless provider about international rates; plans may vary.
Complimentary Wi-Fi is available on campus and in the residence hall, so data plans would only be needed for access to the internet and phone calls while out and about.

- Tablet, if desired
- Chargers
- Outlet adapter

Note that voltage is different in Italy, and you will not be able to plug your chargers into an Italian outlet without an electric adapter like this one. This kind of adapter will work for phones, tablets, etc. It will NOT work for hair dryers, straighteners, etc.

For Classes and Trips

- Notebook
- Small bag with a zipper, ideally a cross-body or fanny pack, for your wallet, phone, etc.

Other

- Cash and/or pre-paid credit or debit card

We recommend contacting your bank in advance to do a currency exchange. The currency in Italy is the Euro.

THINGS TO LEAVE AT HOME

- Laptop
- Hairdryer
- Hair straightener
- Curling iron
- Excessive amounts of cash
- Valuables, like jewelry
- Weapons, alcohol, drugs, or anything else on the TSA's prohibited items list
